St John's Co-Cathedral Foundation, Valletta, Malta, launches sponsorship scheme for research.

The Foundation of St John's Co-Cathedral has launched a sponsorship scheme to undergraduates, graduates, postgraduate and other interested researchers whose areas of research are directly related to St John's Co-Cathedral in Valletta, Malta.

The aim of this initiative is to promote the sixteenth-century Conventual Church of the Order of the Knights Hospitaller of St John as a research centre of Baroque art for students, researchers and academics, so that the historic, artistic and architectural richness of this world's cultural heritage could be better appreciated.

Applicants are requested to contact the Foundation on research@stjohnscocathedral.com for further information.
